

STUDENT RIGHT TO KNOW POLICY

The Student Right-to-Know Act, passed by Congress in 1990, requires institutions eligible for Title IV funding, under the Higher Education Act of 1965, to calculate completion or graduation rates of certificate- or degree-seeking, full-time students entering that institution, and to disclose these rates to current and prospective students. To read more about the Student Right-to-Know Act, please visit the National Center for Education Statistics website at <http://nces.ed.gov>.

This Institution provides this information through its Official School Outcomes report. This is published each November in accordance with its accreditor's policies & procedures.
